The mission of the Arthur Temple College of Forestry and Agriculture is to:
- maintain excellence in teaching, research and outreach;
- enhance the health and vitality of the environment through sustainable management, conservation, and protection of forests and natural resources; and
- enhance the production and economic viability of agricultural commodities.
Forestry, wildlife and spatial science programs are administered by the dean, Hans Williams and the associate dean, Matthew McBroom.

Academic Programs
- Bachelor of Science in Forestry with majors in:
  - agroforestry
  - fire management
  - forest management
  - general forestry
  - human dimensions
  - urban forestry
- Master of Science in Forestry
- Doctor of Philosophy in forestry

Master of Science in environmental science

Department of Agriculture

Academic Programs
- Bachelor of Science in agriculture with majors in:
  - agricultural business
  - agricultural development
  - agricultural engineering technology
  - animal science
  - animal science, equine emphasis
  - animal science, pre-vet
  - horticulture
  - horticulture, turfgrass emphasis
  - poultry science
- Master of Science in agriculture

Master of Science with geospatial science concentration

Department of Agriculture

Academic Programs
- Bachelor of Science in environmental science with specialization tracks in:
  - land and water resources
  - discipline specialization
- Master of Science in environmental science

Division of Environmental Science

Academic Programs
- Bachelor of Science in environmental science with specialization tracks in:
  - land and water resources
  - discipline specialization
- Master of Science in environmental science

University Mission Statement:
Stephen F. Austin State University is a comprehensive institution dedicated to excellence in teaching, research, scholarship, creative work, and service. Through the personal attention of our faculty and staff, we engage our students in a learner-centered environment and offer opportunities to prepare for the challenges of living in the global community.

College Mission Statement:
The Arthur Temple College of Forestry and Agriculture will:
- maintain excellence in teaching, research and outreach;
- enhance the health and vitality of the environment through sustainable management, conservation, and protection of our forests and natural resources; and
- enhance the production and economic viability of agricultural commodities.